

Jump at the Sun, English jig by John Kirkpatrick

The musical score is written in treble clef with a key signature of one flat (Bb) and a time signature of 6/8. It consists of two main sections, A and B.

Section A: This section begins with a repeat sign and a box containing the letter 'A'. It spans the first two staves. The first staff contains the first four measures, and the second staff contains the next four measures. The first two measures of the second staff include first and second endings, marked '1.' and '2.' respectively. The section concludes with a double bar line.

Section B: This section begins with a box containing the letter 'B' and spans the remaining four staves. It features a consistent rhythmic pattern of eighth notes with slurs. The first three staves each contain four measures, and the final staff contains four measures, ending with a double bar line.
